St. James's, July 23.

THE following Addreſs to His Majeſty, which was ſubſcribed at the Viſitation by the Biſhop, and about four Hundred of the Clergy, was this Day preſented to His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, by the Reverend Dr. Cannon, Archdeacon of Norfolk, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Norfolk.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean, Archdeacons, and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church, with the Chancellor and Clergy of the Dioceſs of Norwich.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects having, through the Bleſſing of God upon your Majeſty's Counſels and Arms, the Opportunity of meeting together in Peace for the diſcharge of our ſeveral Duties, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon that Succeſs under which we enjoy the Benefits of our excellent Conſtitution, both in Church and State.

As we had a juſt Abhorrence of the late unnatural Rebellion, and the Principles of thoſe who abetted it, and prayed for the defeat of ſo wicked an Enterprize; ſo have we returned our moſt hearty Thanks to God for the Diſappointment of thoſe pernicious Deſigns, which, had they ſucceeded, muſt have involved us in the moſt deplorable Confuſion, and tranſmitted Miſery down to our lateſt Poſterity.

We do moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that in order to prevent, as much as in us lies, the like Attempts being made for the future, we will, in our ſeveral Stations, diſcourage all Tendencies to Sedition, and preſs upon the Minds of the People committed to our Charge, the Duties of Obedience, and peaceable Submiſſion to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, in Conformity to the Character we bear, and the Rules of the holy Religion we profeſs.

And may it pleaſe God, who has graciouſly placed, and hitherto defended your Majeſty upon the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, to continue the ſame good Providence over you, for the Preſervation of our Religion and Liberties; and after a long, a quiet, and a glorious Reign, may the Crown deſcend in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe to all Generations.

Which Addreſs His Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Ratisbon, July 23. Letters of the 11th Inſtant from the Imperial Camp at Futack bring no News of Moment. Nothing had then paſſed, and though they were ſo far advanced, the Appearance of a Peace, as ſeveral thought, was not quite vaniſh'd. Advices of the 6th from Segedin ſay, That Soliman Baſſa of Aleppo, was arrived at Temeſwar 2 Days before with 1000 Foot, and 2000 Horſe: That he had quarter'd the Janiſaries in the Town, but encamped with the Horſe near the Bridge of Ordria on the River Temes, about 2 Miles beyond that Place: That 2 Hungarians were arrived there Poſt from Bender with Letters; and that another was come out of Upper Hungary diſguis'd in a Peaſant's Habit, and immediately ſent forward to Niſſa, where the Grand Vizier lay with the Army, and expected 2 Sons of the Tartar Han, one with 14, and the other with 30000 Men; but the Han himſelf ſtay'd at home, to obſerve the Motions of the Muſcovites. The Turkiſh Army could be at Belgrade from Niſſa in Seven Marches; and Achmet Baſſa was to ſtop at Semendria with the Engliſh and Dutch Ambaſſadors, and M. Fleiſchman, to be ready to go to Belgrade on Occaſion. Three Days ago we had Letters from Venice, which gave an Account, that the Turkiſh Fleet had appeared near Cape Matapan, and the Venetians, on that Advice, advanced with all their Naval Force to attack them: But on Notice that 40000 Turks were marching by Land to beſiege Perga, the Captain-General returned with all his Gallies, to cover Corfu, where he had left only Two Thouſand Men, Regular Troops: The reſt of the Venetian Fleet, being only 33 Ships, did not think fit to make any Attempt againſt against the Turks, who had 60 Ships, 30 of which were of the Line of Battle. They therefore obſerved one another, but nothing had paſſed to the 29th of June.

Venice, July 17. On the 13th Inſtant the Chevalier Moroſini returned hither from his Extraordinary Ambaſſy at Rome. The Captain of an Engliſh Ship, which is newly arrived here from the Levant, relates, that he ſaw the Triumphant Lyon, one of our Men of War, in the Gulph of Lariſſa, ſailing towards Corfu with 3 others Ships. Letters from Corfu of the 3d of this Month adviſe, that the Ottoman Fleet being under Sail to ſurprize 11 of our Men of War, was diſappointed, and thereupon ſteered towards Barbary: But freſher Letters of the 6th ſay, they are returned and come into the Gulph, and having extended their Line, which conſiſts of 60 Sail, betwixt Otranto and Corfu, they hope to prevent the Junction of the Auxiliaries, and to cut off the Communication between Venice and Corfu. We have an Account, that the Fleet of this Republick is come to Corfu, and expect to be joined by the Auxiliaries, by the way of the Canal of Malta.

Bruſſels, July 30. They write from Vienna, that notwithſtanding the Clamours raiſed againſt M. Jaupain, by the People of theſe Countries, the Emperor has thought fit to continue him Director-General of the Poſts in all the Auſtrian Netherlands, and to give a Penſion of 12000 Florins a Year to the Prince de la Tour, in Conſideration of a Sum of Money which that Prince advanced the Emperor, when his Imperial and Catholick Majeſty was at Barcelona. M. Fhiſquens, one of the Commiſſioners for regulating the Separation of Limits between the Auſtrian and French Flanders, is come hither from Liſle, to give the Imperial Miniſter an Account of that Negotiation, which advances but very ſlowly. Baron Dondervelt, Deputy-Governor of the Province of Limburg, who has been in this Town about three Weeks, to receive Count Kinigſegg's Directions about the Affairs relating to that Province, returned Yeſterday to his Government. The Duke and Dutcheſs of Mountague paſſed through this Place on the 25th Inſtant, in their Way to the Spaa. Letters from Vienna give Grounds to believe, that the Marquis de Prié is ſet out for the Netherlands before this Time: Some ſay he was to depart the 15th Inſtant, and others that the Day was not fixed. They ſpeak variouſly of the Power he is veſted with; and we do not ſuppoſe that the Import of his Commiſſion will be known before he has finiſhed his Negotiation at the Hague, whence he is to come to this Place to take the Adminiſtration of the Government upon him, during the Abſence of Prince Eugene of Savoy.

St. James's, July 23. Yeſterday His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales received the Communion in St. James's Church.

On the 21ſt the ſecond and third Regiments of His Majeſty's Foot-Guards paſſed in Review before His Royal Highneſs in Hide-Park.

Whitehall, July 23. This Day came Advice, that His Majeſty arrived at Hanover on Sunday the 15th Inſtant.
